I Found Love at the End of My Rainbow: Based on a True Story Rainee J. Grant
Rain Glattimoore knows first hand how it feels to live a life struggling with self-hate; but she was fortunate enough to discover the treasure of self-love. Rain's emotion grabbing story will have you crying, laughing, angry, heartbroken, and rejoicing as she takes you on her journey of self-reflection. She lets you in to her mind while she reflects on her life about the abuse, rape, drugs, alcoholism, and even murder that will forever be a part of her memory. You'll see how she heals from her abuse,outwits a rapist,kicks her drug addiction, and faces the reality of her best friend's death all before the age of 16. Allow this compelling story to touch your heart as you think about people in your community that Rain represents. There are thousands, maybe in millions, of Rain Glattimoore's in the world that may only need someone to help them find their treasure.
