The Giggling Boy RaLynn LoneWalker
The children have been stolen from their parents. Taken far away and forced to live at the mission school, They are subject to cruel torture, They live in fear, They are waiting for someone to hear their cries. Eleven-year-old Smiley was taken. He lived at the mission school, where he was reconditioned. Smiley will tell you his story, how he lived and how he died. Francis Malachi Pratt, the mission school superintendent, had a deviant hunger. He did unthinkable things to the vulnerable children under his care. He believed he wasn’t accountable for his actions. But now he is dying. He is going to hell.
