The Transformation of Desire: How Desire Became Corrupted--And How We Can Reclaim It
Diarmuid O'Murchu
A brilliant, passionate, and unflinchingly honest reflection on the nature of desire, its present-day frustration, the possibilities for rehabilitation, and the dseperate need for transformation. This study combines O'Murchu's gifts both as a social psychologist with a wealth of research into the pressing issues of our time and as one of the most readable and informed contributors to the interface of science and contemporary spirituality. An excellent read, a must for all seriously committed to saving this planet and healing community.
