Disavowed (Hostage Rescue Team Series) (Volume 4) Kaylea Cross
The government trained her to kill… Briar Jones has lived most of her life in the shadows, carrying out secret ops to eliminate some of the United States' most dangerous enemies. She's devoted her life to serving her country so when a faceless enemy targets her and kills someone close to her, she'll stop at nothing to bring them down. With her life in danger and critical intel leaked during an off-the-books op, she has no choice but to go on the run with a disturbingly sexy man she barely knows. While in hiding they learn that the agency responsible for turning her into a lethal weapon is now out to destroy her. What they don't know is why, or who has set her up. As they unravel the mystery Briar must trust this near stranger in order to stay alive and expose whoever is behind the plot. She never expected to lose her heart in the process. Now it's coming after her… Matt DeLuca has survived devastating loss and risen to become commander of the FBI's elite Hostage Rescue Team. When a top-secret mission goes awry and he's tasked with protecting Briar, the last thing he anticipates is falling in love with the beautiful and deadly assassin. But now intelligence officers are dying and Briar's name is at the top of the hit list. With her life at stake they race to end the threat and clear her name, battling the shadowy killers sent to silence her forever.

Jan Dixon:

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Disavowed (Hostage Rescue Team Series) (Volume 4) can make you sense more interested to read.
