She accepts being friend-zoned until one steamy impulsive night changes everything between them.
But then Brent completely vanishes from her life, leaving her alone, confused, and carrying around a huge secret.

When she runs into Brent again, both of their lives have changed drastically, and now that her old best friend is a billionaire, she's convinced he'll never want her now that he can have any woman he wants, and especially once he finds out what she's been hiding.

But will Brent surprise her after all? Or will he toss her aside again, leaving her alone and broken once more?
