A BBW Wolf-Shifter Romance -- Book One of Six

The peace treaty between humans and shape-shifters was signed over a century ago. One of the clauses says that humans must provide the shifters with young brides to give them heirs and ensure the perpetuation of their species. Today, all over the world, special boarding schools take girls from orphanages and give them the most exquisite education, preparing them to become brides for the enemy. If a bride reaches the age of 25 and no shifter wants to buy her, then she is given two options: serve in a shifter brothel, or starve on the streets. Society would never accept a bride who failed to accomplish her duties.

Avelyn's time at Alma Venus Boarding School is almost up, and she's getting ready to finally reclaim her freedom. For the past seven years she has done everything in her power to avoid being bought by any shape-shifter, and her efforts are paying off. In three months, she'll turn 25 and become a pariah, but a free one. No one knows she's got an ace up her sleeve: a fake ID and a dream of starting a new life in the romantic Italy. Her plans are turned upside down when hot, rich Alpha Max Blackmane comes to Alma Venus in search of a bride. There's no way he'll choose Avelyn over all the slender, gracious beauties he'll be presented with, right? What Avelyn doesn't know is that Max is crazy about sensual, curvy women with a healthy appetite… for food, and other things.

This is the first book in the "Sold to the Alpha" completed serial. It is NOT a standalone. It contains explicit language and sizzling hot scenes that might set your Kindle on fire. Intended for readers 18+.
