My first trip to Walt Disney World Resort was in 1974, and I still can recall the icy sweet Orange Whip at Sunshine Tree Terrace in the Magic Kingdom and the abundant buffet dinner in the showy Crystal Palace. Wow, how times have changed; today you can dine with award-winning chefs at hundreds of restaurants or nosh on a giant turkey leg as you wander through four theme parks. The culinary choices are endless. "Chef Mickey: Treasures From the Vault & Delicious New Favorites" takes a look back and includes some longtime winners, like my favorite fried ice cream and the savory Steak Diane from the Lake Buena Vista Club. There are plenty of new recipes too, including dishes from Disneyland Resort and Disney Cruise Line. Each chapter is divided into "New Favorite Recipes" and "From the Vault Recipes," with more than 150 recipes, from cocktails to desserts. We spent nearly a year researching and testing recipes for the book, and just as fun as the recipes are vintage photos we found, like the one of entertainer Jimmie Rodgers from the 1970s at the Top of the World (now California Grill) at Disney's Contemporary Resort, and the photo of Walt Disney tossing a salad in his brand new Walt Disney Studios in the 1940s.
