The Narrow Path: A Romantic Suspense Thriller (Dangerous Men Book 1) Alex Abbott

She thought her heart was mended...

Angela is celebrating a successful heist, when the last person in the world she wanted to see waltzes back into her life.

Four years ago, Jamal ripped her heart out and tossed it on the ground. But he's back, beefed up from prison and wanting to make amends for dumping her.

He's still the same dominant man she'd fallen in love with, but with a calmer head on his shoulders. He promises to protect her from her bad decisions and wild past, and with the mob indebted to him over his time, she believes him.

When he offers her the chance to manage his strip club and answer to nobody but him, the temptation is more than she can ignore. But can they get over all of the secrets and lies they've told one another while avoiding being sucked back into a life of crime? Or is the temptation of fast money, and illegal highs, too much for them?

Note: Some Russian speaking characters are written with an intact accent. These are not typos, but a representation of their accent.
