Charlie and her husband begin the winter with hopes for a honeymoon in a secluded New Mexico mountain cabin. But their plans are disrupted when police locate an old pawn ticket identifying the gun used in a five year old murder. They trace the ticket back to ski instructor Elroy Romero, who work's for Charlie's husband, Drake. Elroy swears he didn't commit the crime, even though the gun has been in his possession all along. And when it turns out the murder victim was Elroy's brother, a priest, Charlie really begins to question her client's story. As Charlie is drawn deeper into the case, she begins to uncover a connection between the priest's murder and a multi-million dollar theft ring of religious artifact. But as the pieces begin to click into place, she finds hers and Drake's lives are on the line.
