Take Two: A Modern Love Story Short Romantic Comedy (Modern Love Story Shorts Book 1) Daisy Prescott
This is a short story.

Life rarely gives second chances.

With the help of meddling friends, the world's largest burrowing clam, and a hot lumberjack, Maggie Marrion and Gil Morrow got their second chance at love in Geoducks Are for Lovers.

Now living together, they're discovering that sometimes the second time around, especially when it comes to sex, is better than the first. Or can be with the help of magical blue pills.

Is a trip to the ER worth it for a night of wild sex at forty?

Take Two is intended for mature audiences, 18 and up, because it contains middle age people kissing, recreational prescription drug use, and outdated references to the late 20th century.

This Modern Love Story Short takes place chronologically at the beginning of Modern Love Story #2.
