Broken Jessica Evans
I’m being stalked by a dead man. I’ve been living in the shadows for years, running from a past I didn’t choose, running towards a future that can never exist.
My only means of survival?
My fists.
I try to flee, but I am captured by Chase's sultry lips. He says he can protect me, but I know that’s not true. And, after one night of passion, I have to make a choice: do I bring him into my nightmare, or do I push him away and save his life?
I can’t stop running.
I can’t escape the past.
I can’t stop giving myself to the one man that I never should have touched.
I don’t deserve him.
It’s better that I keep running, because if I don’t, his life will be in danger too.
And that's a risk that I'm not willing to take.
