MEAGAN:
I see him for what he is now - the worst kind of guy imaginable. As if being a biker weren't enough, he's in with racists too?

What a damn fool I was letting him in so deep. Why? Just cause he was hot.

And cause he treated me well.

And cause he whispered sweet things to me.

Cause we were winding together, closer and faster than with any other guy I've ever been with before.

He doesn't deserve to be in my life. I know that.

So why can't I let him go…

VAUGHN:
The truth had to come out sometime. What we had could never last. I had my fun, tried what I should have never had. Now, I'm free again.

But I don't want freedom. I want her.

I can fix this. She's not too far gone to see there's more than just fireworks between us. Winning her will cost me though. The Soldiers will never let us be. There will come a day of reckoning.

It's more than that. I can't be who I was and who she makes me want to be.

But I'm damn well gonna try.

Grey features sizzling romance, steamy sexual situations and some racial language. Mature and open-minded audiences only. This book is not meant to be read as a standalone and is a bestseller, Black and White . Book 3 in the series, Clear, is now out.
