Selected Works (Engaged Writers)

José Antonio Ramos Sucre

Selected Works (Engaged Writers) José Antonio Ramos Sucre
The famously dark and linguistically innovative Venezuelan poet José Antonio Ramos Sucre can now be read for the first time in English, thanks to this translation by Guillermo Parra. Born in 1890, Sucre is one of Venezuela's most important poets, although scorned by critics until an avantgarde revival of his work in the fifties and sixties. He was educated at the Universidad Central de Venezuela in Caracas, and worked as a teacher and translator for the Venezuelan Foreign Ministry. He lived in Europe during the last year of his life.
