Danni's a 24-year-old tattoo artist with short blonde hair and a curvaceous figure.

She lives with her younger brother Ethan and has the best job going, as far as she's concerned.

Danni works in Terry's Tattoo, a small shop owned by Eli. She loves her work and is an accomplished tattooist.

Her life's just drifting from day to day until Joe walks into the shop.

Joe's 6' tall with brown eyes and short wavy brown hair. He has the perfect physique with his muscular sexy body.

He's got an appointment booked with Danni for a shoulder tattoo and she's taken with him straight away.

They hit it off and chat easily while she works, easily that is until Faith walks in with her petite figure and red hair as fiery as her temper. Of course, Joe would have a girlfriend and of course, she'd be tiny and not curvy like Danni, but is everything as black and white as it seems between them?

In the span of twenty-four hours Danni's world is turned upside down and spun around, and her peaceful drifting along life is transformed into one filled with passion, lust and mystery.

So why is Joe so mysterious and shady about his relationship with Faith?

Does Danni let him into her world or is he too complicated for her simple life?

Does the sexual attraction between them draw her to him?
