Cases and Materials on California Civil Procedure (American Casebook) David I. Levine, William R. Slomanson, Rochelle J. Shapell
The case selection reinforces the perspective of a practitioner choosing knowledgably between state and federal court. The casebook addresses procedures unique to California practice that are not generally presented in the first-year course in civil procedure. Contains information on many state/federal differences in pleading, discovery, right to jury, alternative dispute resolution, res judicata, and appeals.
