The Anatomy Of Marriage: The Expectations Of Marriage In a Modern World

Who invented the ideology of marriage?
In this book we will have a brief look at the history of marriage, and the how and why it ever came into existence. You might be surprised how marriage started and its original intentions.
The book will show you some important aspects of the marriage relationship, in order for it be successful with everything that can be thrown at it.
Aspects such as compromise, trust and respect and of course romance.
Three seemingly simple aspects, but ones that are so often missing from failing marriages.
We will highlight some of the more common problems that can lead to divorce. Make suggestions on possible ways to overcome these issues, simply by learning the art of compromise and understanding. I did not write this book to save your marriage or the lack of romance in your marriage.
Life, with a loving partner, is far more meaningful than facing life and all its problems alone.
Marriage is not for everyone, some are happy to enjoy a relationship of love, without the need to legalize their union.
So what is marriage today?
Is marriage a sanctity worth continuing?
In this book we will explore the many benefits of being married.
I did not write this book to save your marriage or help you get over a breakup but i will give you advice and tips that will help you to deal with your marriage problems.
