It’s spring—T-ball season! Zoe has signed up for the Sesame Street team. She’s excited about playing, but when a pick-up game doesn’t go well, she wants to quit. Her father suggests she try it anyway, and supports her when she just wants to watch during the first practice. When Zoe sees that other team members are also beginners at T-ball, she decides to give it a try. As the novice players work together, they learn that there is great value—and fun—in working hard at something new.
