Land of Nakoda: The Story of the Assiniboine Indians (Western History Classics) William Standing, James L Long
A vivid account of the history, legends, customs, crafts, and ceremonies of the Assiniboine Indians of the northern plains in Montana, North and South Dakota, Minnesota, and Canada. First published in 1942 as part of the Federal Writers' Project, it was written and illustrated by tribal members who interviewed the Old Ones, the tribal elders, in their native language. Of great interest to ethnologists and students of Native American history.
