The Greatest Thing In The World: How To Share God's Love With Your World Henry Drummond

“To become Christ-like is the only thing in the whole world worth caring for, the thing before which every ambition of man is folly and all lower achievement vain.”

“The people who influence you are the people who believe in you.”

“You will find as you look back upon your life that the moments when you have truly lived are the moments when you have done things in the spirit of love.”

When Jesus was asked, "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?" Jesus responded, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

Based on 1 Corinthians 13, this well-loved classic provides life-changing insight into the nine components of love: patience, kindness, humility, generosity, courtesy, unselfishness, good temper, guilelessness, and sincerity. The simple beauty and positive truths of this dynamic message will encourage readers to practice the power and blessing of love in every area of life.

Drummond's memorable homily on love -the supreme good- retains all its original freshness and vitality in this modern day. Widely quoted and read, his message on love from First Corinthians has sold over 12 million copies. Invoking God's two greatest commands to love Him and love one another, this message is just as needed today as it was back then.
