Zion, the Holy City of God

Alvin Avery

Zion, the Holy City of God Alvin Avery
Zion, the Holy City of God is Alvin Avery's seminal work. Using twelve versions of the Bible, the author performs an analysis that indisputably demonstrates how, in the last days, God's glorious, holy city will descend from the heavens. Avery describes a glorious, cash less society where there is true social justice, hope for the poor and food for all. It's a city in which God has absolute ascendancy, righteousness replaces corruption and the truth takes the place of lies. Zion, the Holy City of God, written in an easy-to-understand style, has a glossary and is a must read for anyone who wants to know what God's plan is for the salvation of mankind and how it will be implemented.
