It Must Of Been An Angel Watching Over Me Suzette Kogut
I was the oldest of three children at the time living in Brooklyn, New York wasn't easy, big cities has more problems. My mom did the best that she could trying to raise us as a single parent. I can remember living in a five story apartment. My mom left me to care for my younger sibling at such a young age, I was 6 years old. I remember my baby sister crying I tried to get her out the crib and a mirror fell on her feet and cut her feet. All I can remember is that I was in trouble. I was protective over my siblings I just know it had to be a god because I do not know how I did it. Many night my mom was not around to care for us, I had no idea were she could of been. I don't know were this lady and her husband came from I just know they were christians and they use to let me stay at there house. My mom didn't know those people and never seem to wonder if we were in good hands or safe. They were loving people that open there home to us and I was thankful for that. My mother had an addiction, she was a heavy drinker, and she loved to party and have a good time. I believe she wasn't ready for the life of raising children. My mom use to always get into it with people because she had big mouth she would talk a lot mess and her friends wanted to fight her. This one lady she fought was chocking my mom so hard I thought she was going to kill her, all I could do is yell, and tell the lady to "stop and get off my mom" it was terrifying seeing my mom getting choked. My life was not normal as child my age. Many nights I walked a long way through the park to go to my grandmother because I didn't know were my mom was. I didn't know how I found my grandmother's house, she said she didn't even know how I found her house, I knew it had to be an angel directing me all the way to her house. I am thankful for God putting a wonderful grandmother in my life. I don't know where I would of been today, and how I might of turned out. I had a lot of fun living the new life with my grandmother. She was a beautiful women inside and out and loved God. I remember she had myself my brother and sister to get on our knees and she taught us the father's prayer wish was, Our father wish art in heaven hollow be thine name thy kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven give us this day our daily bread and forgive us as those forgive us lead us not in temptation but deliver us from evil for thine is the kingdom the power the glory forever amen. We used to laugh so hard learning how to say the fathers pray it sound so funny. She would go over it with us every night until we memorized it. She also taught us the lord is my shepard as well from psalms 23. I end up living with my grandmother until my mother got herself together. I started going to church and I also sang in the choir. I really enjoyed going to church, we had to go every sunday. I didn't mine going, I enjoyed hearing the preacher and the choir sing. I was a good child I always wanted to do the right thing, I wanted to be a role model for my younger brother and sister. My grandmother loved to go, we would go fishing, to the beach and to colony island with my uncle. I could remember when I first rode the roller coaster, I was scared to ride it at first, once I got on it was a lot of fun. We did so much with my grandmother that we never did with my mother. I finally met my father after not seeing him in years, he came to to get us and my mom to bring us to california for a change and a new life thinking it would change my mother from her habits. We drove their, we did a lot of stopping and site seeing it was fun, and also knowing my mom and dad was back together. Once we arrived in California we stayed in a motel and then moved to my dad sister apartment once she moved. Everything seemed to be going ok from the beginning and for a while until my mom started hanging out with the neighbors and drinking again.Their relationship didn't work out, and from their everything went down hill.
