Lasting marriages don't just survive. They thrive.

Long-married spouses discover how to not just live with each other, but to love each other in a way that can only be described as godly. They've come to understand that the joys of marriage often arrive because of its many challenges, not despite them.

Marriage is a perfectly imperfect relationship that's hard, but worth it.

After nearly forty years of marriage, Pastor Kurt Bubna knows that to be true. In three decades of leading churches, he's also witnessed the hopes, hurts, confusion, and frustration of hundreds of married couples trying to love each other well in a world that urges selfishness over sacrifice.

Combining his church members' stories and his own "recovering idiot" experiences with insightful biblical knowledge, Pastor Kurt shares vital principles and practical advice that can help any marriage, in any stage, thrive for years on end.

"As someone who has been a 'Mrs.' in a very imperfect marriage for 28 years, I was immediately drawn to the title of this book. Then the stories, insights, and wisdom found inside kept me hooked from cover to cover. In a culture headlined by divorce in the church, in Hollywood, in our neighborhoods, and in our families, Mr. & Mrs. delivers practical ideas and principles for making you want to stay together for the long haul. Couples starving for hope, longing for healing, and desperate for hands-on, real-life ideas to make their marriage meaningful and fun again will find Kurt's book a refreshing, down-to-earth read. Mr. & Mrs. will give you pause--and reason--to stay together.
