This is a FUN STANDALONE STEPBROTHER ROMANCE

Jennifer didn't even want to go to the stupid wedding. She had studying to do anyhow. And who was this rich guy that had swooped in and swept her mother off her feet in record time anyhow? She figured she would just have to suck it up, grin and bear it, like she always did. God, but it was torture to be around all those stuck up society people…until she met Charles, that is. He was as rich as the rest, but he wore the money effortlessly, and more to the point, their physical attraction had been the most intensely powerful, magnetic and immediate she had ever experienced. Somehow though she had kept her clothes on, well, most of them, and escaped the embrace of this stranger that night. It had all just been too fast. Now months later, despite being in a new relationship, and with the imminent loss of her childhood home to worry about, it is still the tall dark stranger in the tailored suit that she dreams of at night. If only she could feel his strong embrace once more. Little does she know, as she heads back home to finally meet her new step-family, that she will in fact be seeing that tall dark stranger again.
