Making Learning To Read Simple And Fun For Your Little One

What Makes This the Perfect Book for Beginning Readers?

1. This book utilizes both rhyme and engaging illustrations to reinforce the sound that each word ending makes. Almost every word ending is paired with a picture of something that rhymes with that word ending.

2. The word ending is superimposed on the picture of the thing that rhymes with it to help those who are visual learners.

3. The words used in this series of books have been carefully selected to be easy to read for any child who knows the alphabet and the sound that each letter makes.

4. Word puzzles provide a fun way for your child to review and use what they have learned.

5. By the end of each book, your child will learn 11 to 15 different word endings and 41 to 86 new words. These accelerated results will give your child a great sense of achievement and the confidence to try to read more challenging words.

6. Each book in this series:

    - groups similar word endings together to make learning to read extremely simple.

    - gradually progresses from reading words and phrases to reading sentences.

- builds on and reviews word endings learned in the previous books.
