Kayla Marshall had always been the dutiful daughter, friend and girlfriend. Raised by parents who were cold and controlling, she let this control drift into her adult life. To please her parents, she had wasted several years of her life pretending to be the person she was expected to be, with the man they thought she should be with.

So, when the opportunity presents itself to pursue her desires, she embraces it. For just one night she could be whoever she wanted to be. What is the worst that could happen?

Her answer came in the form of Sgt. Luke Daniels. This handsome bad boy wasn’t the type of man she was supposed to be with. Her family would have a fit if they saw her with a working class white man. Perhaps that was part of the initial attraction.

He was so different from the other guys she had dated. More different than she even knew. Their steamy night together would lead to the biggest decision of her life. Will she have the courage to finally go after who and what she really wants?

As a token of our appreciation, you will be receiving 4 additional Bonus books for your enjoyment!
