Dhammapada (Noonday, N348)

Dhammapada (Noonday, N348)
The Dhammapada consists of twenty-six poems of chapters, with a total of 423 verses, attributed to the Buddha himself. These verses are an almost complete presentation of Buddhist ethics, much of it in actual practice today. As the Buddhist "way of truth"(pada, meaning path or way; dhamma, the teaching), The Dhammapada thus offers an invaluable insight into the nature of the Buddhist mind and its response to life.
