If you're an Outlander fan, you will love this time traveller story as we follow Marion on her journey from our contemporary time, to 18th century Australia. If you enjoy the combination of time travel and romance than you will love the time travel adventure of Marion Lacey. In this adventure she finds herself in the colonies of Australia in the 1850s, suddenly pushed into a governess position. The problem is, the child's father is the most handsome rugged man she has ever met. When things escalate she finds herself in his arms seeking his love, but just when she thinks things are going well, he finds out her secret. She must explain to him that she is from the future, which he does not believe. Now, she has to deal with losing the trust of the man she has fallen for and being forced to leave the child that she has grown so fond of. Can Marion prove to him that she is telling the truth? Or will she end her adventure with sadness in her heart, and without the man she has fallen for?
