A serial killer they'll say. Me! Richard Henders! They'll set me up to be this savage murderer, but those shitting old biddies deserve everything they get. All I've got to do is keep my lock up secret. All I've got to do is avoid the nasty little pigs. All I've got to do is kill the old ones. Because it is all their fault and only the good die young...

George Helman gets into the confused mind of her killers like no other crime writer

ONLY THE GOOD DIE YOUNG is the first in a series of books to feature the London-based detective duo of the aging Dave MacDonald, whose mental health is borderline, and Shirley Palmer, the younger black, lesbian officer who increasingly covers for him as the stresses of the job threaten their investigations. The books can be read as a series or on their own. The second book, MORE THAN EVEN, features a serial killer whose motives are difficult to understand and the third, ONE UP ON YOU, is about a fitness fanatic who takes his obsession with looking good to a murderous level.
